GARDEN GROVE KIWANIS RAMBLINGS, PUBLISHED WEEKLY

JUNE 12, 2008

Garden Grove Kiwanians Blissfully Ignorant (of Lakers' collapse)

Stalwart twenty try to make up for previous meetings' poor attendance

We attempted to hold a meeting at the same time as the Lakers' playoff game, and despite intense interest by some of the members, the meeting went off pretty well. Until Craig tried to stand in front of the TV and start talking, that is. Of course, we all know how game 4 turned out, so who's to say listening to President Howard wouldn't have been better?

Fred Waggoner attended for the first time in a while. It was great to see him back, recovered from several illnesses. By the way Fred, your wife did you real proud at the pancake breakfast. Tell her thank you from us.

Announcements

- We will have a program on the 26th of June—one Mr. Chuck Truman. Those in attendance are guaranteed to have a good time.
- On July 10th County Supervisor Janet Nguyen will be attending our meeting to speak. Robin pointed out that as Janet was recently reelected, we will not be getting her stump speech. In addition, this will be a Ladies' Night or a Spouse Night. (Sorry, the California Supreme Court called suggesting we allow for alternatively hitched couples.)
- We decided to have a joke night the last meeting in September, the 25th. Shirley Hodges had better answer all her email early, because you just know Ed will be downloading multiple pages that week.
- Next week we have ham on the menu. To eat. No speaker lined up yet, but I'm working on Dr. Schwalm, the superintendent of GGUSD, and member in good standing with the morning Kiwanis club. She still has the funnel cake batter in her hair to prove it.

Happy/Sads

RC- Good jokes tonight.

Walt- Agreed with RC, looking forward to joke night in September.

Gary S.- Joke night sounds good, just got back from Hawaii.

Don N.- Another vote in favor of joke night.

Robin- happy to see more than ten members at the meeting.

Fred W.- happy to be here.

Don S.- happy to see everyone. Always willing to tend bar.

John – happy to see Fred W. Somewhat torn about Don tending bar—hopes the GG Police force is not all over the place when Don wields the Jack bottle.

Will S.- happy $10 for his two grandkids who graduated Sigma Cum Laude. From pre-school.

Jerry K.- missed last week for sister's 60th birthday party.

Tom E.- happy $5 for his time in Kauai.

It is a tonic for all. (Main said that's all fine and good, but do they have the gin?)

Efrain- happy to see members.

Ed H.- missed last week, but weren't in Hawaii.

Bob M.- hoping for better jokes.

Jerry M. – A woman approached him this past week and said how much she admired him and what a wonderful man he is. As Jerry started to thank her, she said she had heard about his amazing start in the catering business.

Bruce B. – the gas is $.70 per gal cheaper in Arizona. Glad the pickles sold so well.

Craig H.- happy for all members in attendance, for a good summer and that the park is being used.
